WITHDRAWN

Ellensburg, the home of the Central Washington College of Education, is also known as the "Rodeo City," having acquired its name from the Labor Day weekend western celebration. The Ellensburg Rodeo is held in the picturesque amphitheater where Central's Wildcats play football. A nationally known show, the Ellensburg Rodeo, the largest rodeo in the state, each year attracts thousands of spectators.

DEDICATION

IN RECOGNITION of his thirty years in the education field, the Hyakem dedicates this 1954 annual to Dr. Ernest L. Muzzall, Director of Graduate Studies.

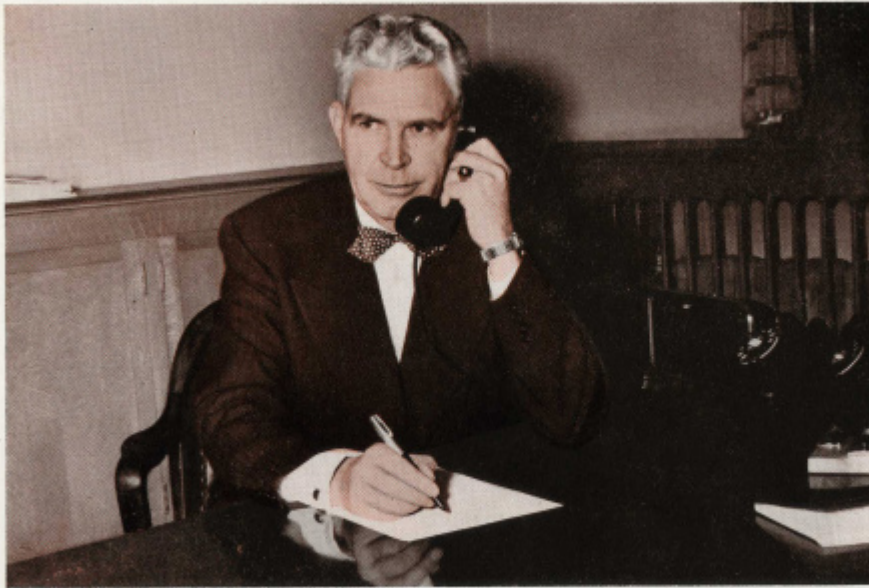

Dr. Muzzall is liked by the students and faculty alike for his sincere attitude and constant service in helping others with their individual problems. He always finds time and is willing to advise students.

On the Central faculty since 1938, Dr. Muzzall served for many years as the Director of Instruction. Before coming to Central, Dr. Muzzall was Superintendent of Schools in Toppenish, Ritzville, and Garfield. At the latter he was also principal.

Dr. Muzzall received his Bachelor of Arts degree and his Master of Arts degree from the State College of Washington and obtained his Ed. D. from Stanford University.

President Robert E. McConnell

THE PRESIDENT

We deem it a pleasure each year to have the opportunity to prepare a message for the Hyakem. Each year this becomes more important because the college is becoming more important.

I am very pleased that the Editor has prepared a page dedicated to my old friend and colleague, Dr. Ernest L. Muzzall. This tribute is given to a deserving personality and to a man who has devoted his creative professional life to the education of youth.

Each year at Central we can point to new accomplishments and recognitions. This year, for example, our college was approved by the American Association of University Women and now our women graduates may join a branch of this association anywhere they may reside. Another recognition that came our way was the invitation from the Music Educators National Conference to the Central Singers to perform at the national conference. So, funds were raised and the Central Singers went to Chicago and performed with dignity and distinction. Thirdly, during the year plans have been made for improvements and additions to the campus. These projects include a new dormitory for men, a new bookstore, new lighting fixtures in the old administration building, and sundry small improvements to other buildings.

The Editor and her staff are to be congratulated upon the production of a fine Hyakem. It will have a record in pictures and words of most of the highlights of the year. It is a record of the life at college as seen by students. We will enjoy it!

May Central live on in your memories!

THE DEANS

All too often the calendar finds us redoubling our efforts to complete our assignments before the termination of another highly successful year. For our senior students there should be rejoicing and a feeling of real accomplishment for having completed their academic work and for the privilege of moving forward to new fields of conquest. Personally I would like to say, "Thank you, senior students, for helping us make this the friendliest college in Washington." I hope you have profited by having been afforded the experiences that the faculty and other students have tried to give you in making this a first class institution and you a first class person. Already next year's academic offerings and major activities have been planned for those of you who are returning. With our sights directed towards greater accomplishments I am sure the coming year will also be a banner year for Central.

W FALL

The return of Autumn brought 1286 students to Central. Some were new to the campus, many had been here before. All of them eagerly thronged around, through, and in the buildings renewing old acquaintances and making new friends. All were looking forward to the many activities planned for the quarter. Finally, registration was complete and classes began . . .

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS

Chuck Hammill, Dean Rau, Arlene Stokes, Bob Steiner, Jerry Ward.

Freshman Class

The adjectives energetic and enthusiastic best describe this year's Freshman Class. Throughout the year this class was well represented in the band, the choir, and student organizations. The group began its activities for the year with the memorable "Beanie Bounce." The success of this first enterprise encouraged them to go further in their activities. Their second activity was making a float for the Homecoming parade. Dean Rau acted as chairman of this activity. Long to be remembered, too, was the hilarious freshman skit during the Homecoming festivities.

At their first freshman class meeting the following officers were elected: President, Dean Rau; Vice-president, Bob Steiner; Secretary, Arlene Stokes; Treasurer, Chuck Hammill; and Social Commissioners, Pat Gregory and Jerry Ward. Bruce Robinson was selected as adviser for the class of '57.

Through their experiences during their first year, the Freshmen became well equipped to carry leadership responsibilities in the years to come.

Hyakem

Times were trying and situations quite often hilarious and sometimes critical, but the year is coming to a close and we are very delighted to present your 1954 Hyakem. We have had fun. We have worked hard.

Should you find between these covers, your most memorable events of this year, we then can be able to relax knowing that we have succeeded. We have earnestly tried and that is perhaps the best that can be said of any situation.

As for my staff, many, many thanks. I think you did a wonderful job. It is quite gratifying to have a staff that is always willing to do more.

Special recognition is in order for Mary Pennington, who spent a terrific amount of time as my associate editor; Pat Crawford practically "lived" in the darkroom; Janet Schacht for all her mounting assistance; Darwin Davis, who did a wonderful job on the art work; and also to Russ Jones for coming through on spring sports when their seasons had barely started, and ours was almost complete.

Staff

The 1954 Hyakem, a picture and story record of another year at Central, will serve as a permanent and bound record of memories of study, friendships, social life, sports and all the other activities that go to make a college year memorable. Hour upon hour of hard work on the part of the Hyakem editor and her staff have gone into the publishing of this book in an effort to make it a complete record of the year just completed. This year at Central was one of growth, enlargement of the campus, improvement of some of the buildings, addition of extra courses, registration of a large number of students and of the college's largest Freshman class. It has been a year of learning, a year of new experiences, a year which the Hyakem staff has recorded in these pages. . . .

Crier

With a young but large and lively staff of freshmen and sophomores, the CAMPUS CRIER completed its 27th year as the spokesman of Central Washington College and supporter of school functions. Operating under the Student Government Association, the CRIER came out every Friday except on holidays and during test weeks.

Bob Larrigan served as editor of the CRIER for the school year with Joe Jones as associate editor for the first two quarters and Lila Malet as associate for spring quarter. Oscar Larsen was sports editor for autumn and winter quarter and Bill Leth, for spring quarter. Two new positions, assistant editor and assistant sports editor, were created at the close of winter quarter. Sandra Schwab was named assistant editor and Don Bolton, assistant sports editor. Business manager for the year was Howard Hansen. Ron Tasso was advertising and circulation manager.

Staff

Week by week the many and varied activities at Central have been recorded in the college newspaper, the Campus Crier. Hard-working staff members burned the midnight oil regularly before press day and then sat back to admire their printed product as it rolled off the presses. Staff members "covered" the campus, attending social functions, lectures, meetings, assemblies, sports events and visiting faculty and administration offices to keep Centralites informed of the daily happenings at their college. With the exception of vacation periods, the Campus Crier was printed each week of the school year. Student editors and reporters learned, at first hand, the trials, the tribulations and the satisfactions of the newspaper business and gained valuable experience that will aid them in the various careers that they will follow after they leave Central.

Homecoming

There was a crowd and much merrymaking at the Homecoming Mixer . . .

Many unusual signs and posters sprang up around the campus to welcome the alums

Activities

Another clever sign was that erected by Alford Hall on the lawn of the Administration Building . .

Sue Lombard's Revue was also a fast-moving contribution to the Stunt night entertainment . .

The Central Washington College Wildcats ended their Evergreen Conference football schedule with a won 2 lost 6 record. But the lost record does not indicate the closeness of the games. They lost to C.P.S. by one point 20-19 in the last minute of the game and held Whitworth to a 7-2 victory. The College of Puget Sound and Whitworth tied for the league championship. The Cats also lost a close one to P.L.C. in Tacoma 7-6. Both of the Crimson and Black's victories were decisive. They defeated the University of British Columbia 33 to 12 and the Western Washington Vikings by a 23 to 12 margin. The only decisive loss in league play was to the Savages from Eastern Washington by the score of 34 to 7. In the two non-conference tilts, Central lost to Whitman in the season opener 25 to 6 and finished the season in Portland against Lewis and Clark. They lost to the Pioneers 12 to 7 on a field covered with mud.

BALL

Bob Hibbard was a unanimous choice on the Evergreen Conference first string and was picked for the Little All-American second team. Don Pierce was chosen for the second team of the Evergreen Conference. Hibbard's fellow squad members selected him as 1953 honorary captain and presented him with the inspirational player award. John Hill was selected as the squad's best blocker and Dick Feldenzer was picked as the outstanding freshman player.

With only six seniors leaving this year's squad, Central's chances of winning the Evergreen Conference in football next season seems very likely. Eight of the eleven starters will return next year along with a host of other reserve lettermen.

SGA

1953-54 has surely been one of learning and valuable experience for the SGA Council. Each of us has learned what is necessary to govern ourselves. We have tried through our representative form of government to make wise decisions and to always further the cause of the people who elected us.

It is now possible to revise our outdated constitution, there will also be an added officer to the executive board next year. We sincerely hope that with this added strength the students at Central will continue to gear themselves to better and better standards. Our many thanks to students, faculty and administration for making this year one we won't forget.

SGA COUNCIL

The SGA Council has been very active throughout the year, functioning as a policy-making board as well as performing activities important to our Student Government. The main projects SGA undertook were: Freshman Orientation Week, The Colonial Ball, a plan for blanket student insurance, addition of Social Commissioner to the Council, amendment to the constitution which would require only 50 per cent of enrolled students to vote to change our constitution, provision for specific criteria for selection of people for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, legislation which would allow a dormitory to assume the responsibility for and plan a major campus activity such as Homecoming or Sweezy Day.

AWS

The Associated Women Students offer congratulations to the Hyakem editor and her staff for time, energy, and work spent in forming this book of memories for 1953-54. Each page recalls many pleasant memories of the fun and friendship which are such an important part of our college life.

We also appreciate the student and faculty participations which helped make the activities of AWS successful. We have enjoyed planning our activities for you and hope they have added to the enjoyment of your school year, just as they have added to mine and those of the AWS Council.

AWS COUNCIL

The AWS Council consists of five selected officers and the presidents of all women's organizations and living groups. The Associated Women Students sponsor various events throughout the school year. An important highlight of fall quarter is the Snoball Tolo. Through the students' participation at the Snoball, AWS was able to add to the choir fund for the trip to Chicago. The school year is climaxed in the spring by an entire weekend planned for the mothers. AWS also sponsors the Spurs, the sophomore women's service honorary; they award two annual freshmen scholarships, award a scholarship plaque to the women's living group with the highest grade point average, and they maintain a loan fund for the girls.

KAMOLA HALL

With its rooms filled to capacity, Kamola started the year with an enthusiastic group of women. Right away, the friendliness which so characterizes the biggest dorm on campus prevailed at the year's first social function, a fireside welcoming the freshmen. Halloween furnished the motif for Kamola's hayride and dance with Munson Hall. What has been termed "one of the best" Christmas parties in Kamola's history included group caroling, a short skit, a visit from Santa, and refreshments.

Winter quarter was initiated with a successful popcorn-fireside with North and Alford Halls and the traditional "Rat Race." When Valentine's Day rolled around, another dorm party was held featuring a pantomime, musical talent, and refreshments. The quarter was concluded with a fireside marshmallow roast with the prefabs.

Spring quarter opened with a "sucker dance," designed to raise money for the choir trip. This quarter, too, featured another of the popular firesides, and their annual tolo.

Kamola Hall was led this year by President, Shirley Olson; Vice-president, Lois Kepka; Secretary, Elaine Sylvester; Treasurer, Marion McCasland; Social Commissioners Janet Smith and Alene Key.

SUE LOMBARD HALL COUNCIL

SUE LOMBARD HALL

Sue Lombard commenced a year of activities by sponsoring the traditional progressive fireside. Next in fall quarter's train of events came Homecoming. The girls' work was well rewarded for their sign merited a second place award and their elaborate Homecoming skit also brought them a second place spot.

The dorm was proud of the fact that during the days preceding Christmas nearly every window displayed a cleverly decorated painting representative of Christmas. One of the windows won campus honors for its effectiveness. In the choral competition, the Sue girls again brought home high honors, this time copping the coveted first place.

Winter quarter brought with it a fireside with the pre-fabs. During this quarter, too, Sue took first honors in the blood drive.

Spring quarter promised to be eventful, too. A picnic and a formal toled were on the dorm's agenda.

KENNEDY HALL COUNCIL

KENNEDY HALL

Kennedy Hall, the newest women's dorm, is over one-half freshmen. It seems that the freshmen with their new ideas netted Kennedy the competition prizes of the year. The dorm started off in full swing by winning first place in Homecoming Stunt night competition, choral competition at Christmas and also dorm decorations. A sock dance was sponsored by Kennedy winter quarter to raise money for the choir trip to Chicago in March. Other social functions they gave were a Wednesday night mixer, the annual Spring Tolo and a fireside.

Kennedy's officers for the 1954 year were: Connie Weber, President; Nancy Stevens, Vice-president; Marylin Tolles, Secretary; Joan Thompson, Treasurer; Barbara Bode, Head Proctor; Marion Lipsky, SGA Representative; Sally Baird, Social Chairman; Imogene Pownall, Assistant Social Chairman; Pat Hutchinson, Historian; Barbara Edenso, West Hall Representative; Della Black, North Hall Representative; Janet Sherman, East Hall Representative. Mrs. Church is Housemother.

Kennedy is looking back now on a successful year and making elaborate plans for activities for the next school year.

MUNSON HALL OFFICERS

MUNSON HALL

The men of Munson Hall marched through another colorful year crowded with hilarious events, various championships, scholastic success, and great friendships.

It was one of the grandest years ever, bolstered by such highlights as the "Freshman Fantasie" formal, clamor at the Noise Rally, the victory at the annual Christmas choral competition with permanent possession of the trophy, and the earning of the highest grade point average of any dorm for the winter quarter. Also, the clever "Dragon Float" in the Homecoming parade, the winning of the intra-mural basketball tourney by the Munson Kennewicks, and the dorm's boisterous picnic, are a few of the records which Munson men cherish.

Under Social Commissioners Bob Dalton and Bob Patzer, Munson Hall sponsored some of the most lauded dances at Central. The "Heaven and Hell" informal and the annual "Munson Cabaret" were particularly successful.

NORTH HALL OFFICERS

First Row: Herb Petrak, Keith Davis, Gladys Guerrin—Counselor, Tom Guerrin—Counselor, Rudy Kevacevich.
 Second Row: Ed Blank, Oscar Larsen, Alf Knutson, Dick Barrett.

NORTH HALL

The year 1953-1954 was a busy one for the men of North Hall. The North Hall freshmen "dunked" the Munson frosh and won the annual tug-of-war during freshman week. First place in the Homecoming Parade went to North Hall for their outstanding float. Several firesides were held and one formal dance was arranged. North Hall took second in the Christmas choral competition, and won honors in the Christmas decoration contest. The M.I.A. flagball league was dominated by North Hall with teams copping both of the championships. M.I.A. basketball presented North Hall with another championship. Several North Hall men were selected on the All-Star teams for flagball and basketball. Three softball teams were entered in the M.I.A. spring sports. The spring formal and the North Hall picnic were other spring quarter activities.

Officers for the year were: President, Dick Barrett; Vice-president, Oscar Larsen; Secretary, Herb Petrak; Treasurer, Keith Davis; Social Commissioner, Gene Fowler; counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Guerin.

ALFORD HALL

Alford Hall, made up almost entirely of Freshmen, provided stiff competition for the other dorms. They packed fall quarter with an outstanding collection of wins. In the Homecoming competitions, Alford took first with its 3-D sign. Displaying dramatic talent, the men emerged winners — this time receiving third place honors for their skit. Another big first was taken at the noise rally. A hayride concluded the quarter. Spring quarter's activities included an all-college dance and mixer.

Officers to start the year were: President, Ralph Richardson; Vice-president, Rich Preston; Secretary, Fred Barber; Treasurer, Dave Pederson; Social Commissioners, Charles Saas, Waldo Hawk and Vern Dunning; house counsellor, Rick Urdahl.

MONTGOMERY

With only thirty to fifty men all year, Montgomery entered many campus activities, usually emerging successfully. The close cooperation and friendliness of the men enabled the dorm to cop a third place rating on their float for Homecoming, win first prize in the Christmas window decorations, sponsor a socially and financially profitable dance, and engage with fervor and success in intermural competition. Individually, also, Montgomery excelled during the year in sports, scholastics, and school life. Montgomery is proud of "Daddy Don Culbertson" and his boys.

MUNRO HALL

Munro Hall participated in the Homecoming festivities with a "Frankie and Johnny" skit on stunt night. A western dance, "The Munro Roundup" rounded out the fall quarter's activities. The dance was so successful that it will become an annual affair. During the winter quarter, the men sponsored a mixer with all proceeds going toward sending the choir to Chicago. Housefather Dick Tracy was proud to accept the Bill Case Memorial Trophy for the dorm's high percentage of blood donors. Spring quarter activities centered around a "Bubble Dance."

Officers to start the year were: President, Dick Tracy; Vice-president, Ernest Thies; Secretary-Treasurer, Bill Sampson; Social Commissioners, Lou Richards and Frank Gaines; Counsellor, Brad Fischer.

CARMODY HALL

Carmody Hall topped off a busy season with participation in spring sports, entering teams in the inter-school competition. Carmody, one of the "quads," made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in size.

President of Carmody Hall at the start of the year was Vince Lux. His vice-president was Walt Wilson. Keith Freeman was secretary and Bob Andrews, treasurer.

Social commissioner was Ron Brumbaugh, while MIA representative was Bob Pero. Mrs. Miller served as house counsellor for the men at Carmody.

BLOOD DONORS FROM MUNRO

VETVILLE OFFICERS

VETVILLE

At the beginning of the year the tenants of Vetville held their first meeting in the home of Liz and Jerry Nickols, who have "the large white house on the corner. Officers elected were Don Fernandez, Mayor; Jack Nickols, Vice-mayor; Joanne Van Zee and Doreen George, secretaries; and Norma Wingate, Treasurer. Pete Anderson was Vetville representative to the SGA and Don Bowman, Social Commissioner.

A highlight of the year was the winning of second prize for a float "dragon" through the Homecoming parade. Other activities in which Vetville members participated were the Halloween Party, the Senior Day Dance, and the end of the year picnic.

OFF-CAMPUS WOMEN OFFICERS
Jo Ann Green, Margaret Shaw, Barbara Boyer, Elaine Herard, Connie Newman, Mrs. Morgan.

OFF CAMPUS WOMEN

Off-campus Women started off a very productive year with participation in many activities at Homecoming. Their main project for fall quarter was publishing "Who's Who." They sponsored mixers and dances during the year.

The final formal of the year, the May Prom, was given in co-operation with Off-campus Men.

Officers to start the year were: President, Elaine Herard; Vice-president, Connie Newman; Secretary, Margaret Shaw; Treasurer, Barbara Boyer; Social commissioner, Jo Green; Adviser, Mrs. Anne Morgan.

OFF-CAMPUS MEN

First Row: Mr. Wolfsehr, Bruce Ferguson, Bill Bachman, Dale Gross, Floyd Gabriel, Joe Venera. Second Row: Larry Bowen, Jim Riggs, Ben Castleberry, Ted Turner, Dave Trosky.

OFF-CAMPUS MEN

The Off-Campus Men, who have been inactive the last few years, were reorganized this year. They were formerly known as Kaags, but due to the limitations of the organization, it was reorganized to include all off-campus men. The new organization is known as OCMC or Off-Campus Men. OCMC has a potential membership of more than 250 men. Cliff Wolfsehr has had an active part in the reorganization and has given valuable help throughout the year as advisor.

This year Off-Campus Men have cooperated with Off-Campus Women to present the first all-college dance of the fall quarter, Kite Kapers during winter quarter, and the May Prom, one of the highlights of the spring quarter.

The officers during the past year were Bruce Ferguson, president; Bill Bachman, vice-president; Floyd Gabriel, secretary; Dale Gross, treasurer; and Ben Castleberry, SGA representative.

Originally made up of students interested in kindergarten work, the Association for Childhood Education now includes in its membership persons working with children in primary and intermediate grades.

The over-all purpose of this club is to work for the education and well being of the child, to promote desirable educational programs and practices in the elementary schools.

Functions this year included panel discussions on getting ready for student teaching or first year teaching. Panels were comprised of students who had just finished their practice teaching and also teachers from various grade levels.

Officers for the year were: President, Alice Searce; Vice-president, Ardeth Martin; Secretary, Yvonne Thompson; Treasurer, Marlan Jukes; Adviser, Miss Shuck.

An Education honorary for Education students, Kappa Delta Pi encourages higher standards of preparation for teaching.

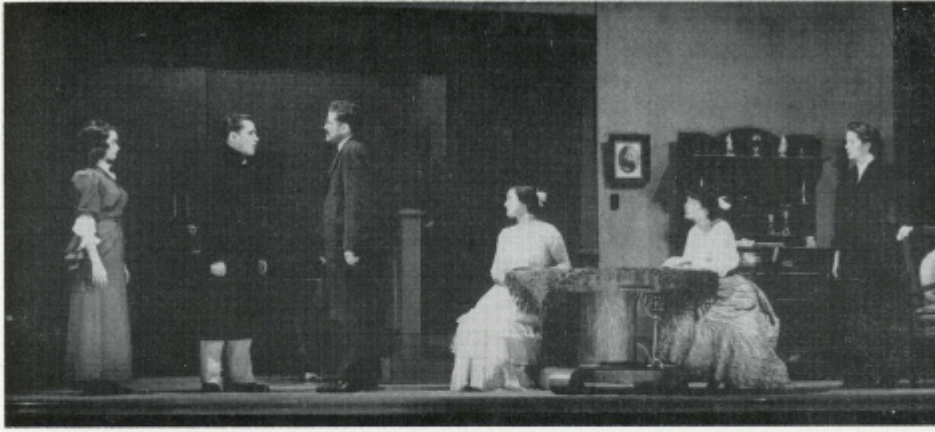

High point for the year was the National Convocation at Purdue University to which Central sent Herb Lincke, Marilyn Trimm, Connie Berg and Norm Savage.

During the year Kappa Delta Pi presented programs to benefit students who will be taking teaching positions. Panel discussions centering around aims of Education were featured during the year.

Their spring project consisted of nominating people outstanding in the teaching field.

YEARS AGO

Thespians at Central in their first production of the year presented "Years Ago" a comedy by Ruth Gordon. The play was a dramatization of the ambition which comes to every normal young person to make something of himself in the world.

The long hours of rehearsal which the cast put in were rewarded through the success of the play which was presented at the College Auditorium under the direction of Mr. Howell, associate professor of speech and drama.

Cast members included Bennet Castleberry, Lora Overman, Dana Glenn, Carole Read, Roselie Long, Larry Bowen, Jack Turner, James Kelley and Nancy Stevens. Punk, a cat from Vetville, was listed among the cast of characters.

CENTRAL SINGERS

An outstanding honor came to Central Washington when its choir members, the Central Singers, were invited to sing before the Music Educators National Conference in Chicago. The choir was one of two such groups chosen from the entire nation to sing at the conference. The choir is directed by Wayne S. Hertz.

The entire college spent a busy fall and winter in a campaign to raise the $10,000 to send the singers to the midwest city. All of the fund came from donations from students, alumni, clubs, service groups, private donors, three benefit concerts, mixers, and the like.

Previous to going to Chicago, the choir made a tour of Central Washington. Other concerts were given at college and in the Ellensburg area. They were invited to sing at the National Rotary Convention in Seattle in June.

CONCERT BAND

The band is one of the busiest student organizations on the Central Washington College Campus. It provides half-time marching entertainment for all home football games; the pep band is on hand at all times during the basketball season, and the concert group prepared several concert programs for community and college audiences besides taking a tour each year to visit high schools and communities throughout the state.

The Concert Band has 47 members from all parts of Washington, Oregon, and Idaho. The winter quarter tour includes appearances at Moses Lake, Ephrata, Cashmere, Chelan, Brewster, Bridgeport, Wenatchee Junior College and Leavenworth. On February 25 the band appeared at the opening session of the Washington State Music Educators Convention at Yakima.

A. Bert Christianson, president of the Northwest Division of the Music Educators National Conference, is the conductor.

WINTER

Winter quarter brought with it renewed activity. At first it was feared the winter sports would be meager because of no snow but "old man winter" didn't disappoint the Sweecyites this year. There was plenty of that "old white stuff" as was evidenced by the skies, snowballs, and snow bound cars. Another quarter faced the students, classrooms waited and classes continued.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

The class participated in Homecoming activities by entering a float in the parade. Highlighting the year was the annual tolo, Cupid's Informal. Brought especially from Yakima for the occasion, the Music Makers played for this outstanding event. Dale Gross was crowned King Cupid.

BASKETBALL

Short on height and experience, but long on hustle was the story of Coach Leo Nicholson's 1953-54 basketball team.

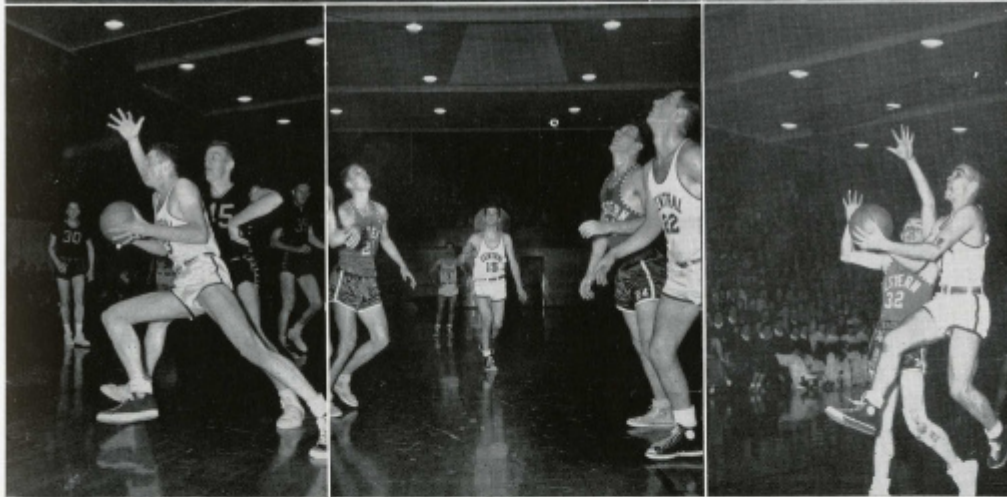

Six returning lettermen and a host of newcomers greeted Coach Nicholson as he started his 26th year of coaching at Central. The returning lettermen led by Don Heacox junior from Auburn and leading team scorer, and Don Lyall, sophomore from Richland, and the team's best shooter, teamed with five newcomers to give Central a team to be reckoned with in Evergreen conference play. The other returning lettermen were Bob Dunn, Gene Keller, Bill Jurgens, and Bill Baber. Heading the list of newcomers were Bob Logue, Mac McAllister, and three freshmen, Don Myers, Bob Maynick, and Jim Hanson.

The end of the season found Central in fourth place in the conference with six wins and six losses. Bob Logue was the leading scorer. Gene Keller was named captain and Bob Logue, inspirational player. Don Heacox was a second team All-conference selection.

The Home Economics Club was organized on the CWCE campus in 1941 and is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association. Home economics majors and minors are eligible for membership. The purpose of the club is to acquaint the girls with opportunities in the field of home economics, and to create a spirit of co-operation and friendliness among the home economics students.

The club members enjoyed such special functions as the Christmas party, a style show and initiation, a pop corn feed and a waffle breakfast honoring the seniors. Officers and advisers attended the state College Home Economics Clubs convention April 12 and 13 at Pullman.

Officers for this year were Barbara Herard, President; Donna McDonald, Vice-president; Margie Omat, Secretary; Nathalie Heinz, Treasurer; Miss Jeannette Ware was club adviser.

This year, the Third Annual Military Ball was again the top social event of the year. This dance is sponsored by the Arnold Air Society, an honorary organization limited to qualified advanced cadets in the AFROTC Program.

The objectives of this organization are to further the purpose, mission, tradition, and concept of the U.S.A.F. as a means of national defense.

There were several guest speakers at their meetings, one of whom was James Kelly of Ellensburg. The CWCE squadron is named after Mr. Kelly, a captain in the AF during the Second World War.

MASKERS AND JESTERS

Activities of Maskers and Jesters, along with 3-act productions fall and winter quarter, began in the autumn when the club received second prize for its Homecoming sign.

Winter quarter, members of the club served coffee and mints during the intermission of the arena play, "The Importance of Being Earnest."

A skit for Sweezy Day was planned and the annual "Double Bill" of two one-act plays was arranged for Senior Day.

The club furthers dramatic interests and abilities of all students who work together these interests. A picnic for all members and their friends was one of the events of spring quarter.

Officers were: President, Ben Castleberry; Vice-president, Floyd Gabriel; Secretary, Sue Ryan; Treasurer, Sam Long; Adviser, Mr. Howell.

International Relations Club

With gaining an understanding of world problems and promoting interest in international relations as its purpose, the International Relations Club held discussions at each meeting. Projects included a clothing drive for Korea, sponsoring speakers, radio programs, UN Day displays, World University Service, and assisting the Model UN delegation. Officers were: President, Sam Long; Vice-president, Rowena Lewis; Secretary-treasurer, Connie Weber, fall quarter and Lila Malet, winter and spring quarters.

MODEL UN

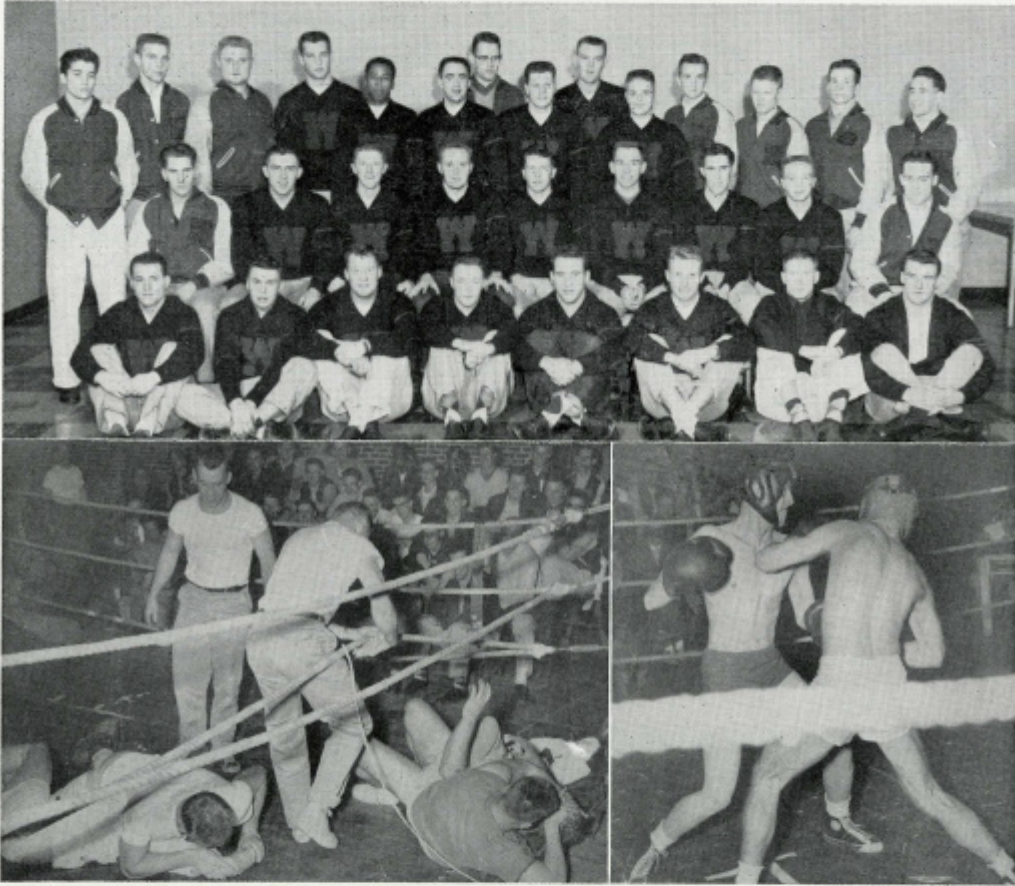

Another campus organization concerned with world politics is the Model United Nations Delegation. They represented Iran at the Model UN Conference at UCLA. The conference is a replica of the UN with students portraying policies of countries they represent. Iran made a creditable showing, passing a resolution to establish an international food reserve through the General Assembly.

Delegates chosen, by application from the students, were chairman, Sam Long; assistant, Landon Estep; secretary, Rowena Lewis; treasurer, Jim Pomerenk; publicity chairman, Lila Malet; and delegates Marie Fugate, Nancy Stevens, Millie Ackerlund, Carol Buckner, Patti Clark, Larry Bowen, Jack Wingate, Russell, Jones, Ron Tasso, Jeffrey Vowles.

"W" CLUB

Seated: Arlie Eaton, Bill Harriman, Don Rundle, Ray Adams, Bob Propst, Brad Fischer, Gene Keller, Dick Barrett.
Row 2: Joe Venera, Alfred Knutson, Gerry Jones, Wayne Backlund, Chuck Dorich, Denny Anderson, Harry Guay, Don Pierce, Bob Hibbard.
Row 3: Tom McKeown, Bill Baber, Marshal Keating, Don Lyall, Walt Wilson, Pete Anderson, Bill Repenshek, Lewis White, Derril Meyer, Oscar Larsen, Tom Boyd, Don Trombley.
Row 4: Bill Jurgens, Don Beste.

The Crimson "W" Club was formed to unite the varsity lettermen of CWCE into an organization that will render services to the college and the student body.

The club's traditional activities are to sponsor the Varsity Ball, and select candidates for queen and princesses of the Colonial Ball. The "W" men also put on the "all-college smoker," and print and sell the football programs each fall.

The traditional initiation picnic is held late in spring quarter at the Swauk Recreation Area.

A new club on campus was organized for women physical, health, and recreation education majors and minors.

PHREMMS was organized in December, 1953 by Mrs. Alyce Cheska, Miss Peggy Gazette, Miss Anna Pavloff, and Miss Leela Zion, physical education instructors.

Officers elected were: President, Olive Wilbur; Vice-president, Betty Irons; Secretary-treasurer, Sally Giddings; and appointed publicity chairman, Barbara Herr.

The twenty-five members met once a month and had as their theme, "Opportunities Unlimited." Miss Allgaier, Camp Fire Girl executive, and Perry Mitchell, head of the northern division of the Pacific Coast Referee Association, were speakers at their meetings.

Activities included parties, a swimming party and a taffy pull. The "Car Wash Day" was their main money-making project.

I. A. CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club was once again a popular campus club. It was composed of those interested in making items out of wood and other materials. The fall quarter officers of the organization were: Gene Bertino, President; Joan Scroup, Secretary.

Winter quarter was one of the most active. One of the principal projects was the making of wood ash trays for student use, particularly in the CUB. The group sponsored a dance gaily decorated with a gypsy theme. The officers for this quarter were: Tex Mains, President; Joan Scroup, Secretary; and Lou Richards, social commissioner.

Mr. Sogge and Mr. Bakke were advisers for the group.

WHITBECK-SHAW

The Whitbeck-Shaw Club was organized in 1935 for students majoring in geography. It was named for Ray Hughes Whitbeck, University of Wisconsin teacher, and the late Dr. Reginald Shaw of Central. The club sponsors speakers and forums on geography, puts on an all-college dance and has its annual Sweezy Day Pancake Breakfast in the City Park.

Meetings this year opened with a talk and slides by Carl Johnson on his trip to Sweden. Jack Herbeiston showed an excellent set of slides of Alaska. There was a discussion of Nanum water problems by Herb Lincke and Harry Guay, and Dr. Funderburk also showed slides.

KAPPA PI

Kappa Pi, affiliated with the national art honorary, Alpha Beta, was once again a very active organization on campus. The officers for the year were, Elaine Herard, President; Darwin Davis, Vice-president; Don Sheppard, Secretary-treasurer. The group started its fall activities with an art bazaar. This affair helped to educate other students as to the type of work done in the art departments on campus. It also provided an opportunity for students to purchase many of the exhibits.

Winter quarter saw the beginning of the faculty loan collection.

HERODOTEANS

The Herodotean Club, history and social sciences honorary, is the oldest club on the campus, being founded in 1923.

Membership is limited to students who have a minimum of fifteen hours in advanced courses in the social sciences, with a grade of "B" or better. The group holds many affairs throughout the year, including the Homecoming Breakfast, the Waffle Breakfast, the Beanfeed and the hilarious freshman initiations.

Officers for the year were: President, Herbert Lincke; Secretary, Dolores Meyer; Treasurer, Fred Fischer; Advisors, Dr. Mohler and Mr. Barto.

"He teaches early American history."

 Fourth Row: Bob Dalton, Larry Pient, Ralph Sager, Bud Niebergall, Bob Estby, Joyce Barnhart.

SIGMA MU EPSILON

Sigma Mu Epsilon, CWCE's music honorary, was formed on the campus in 1936. The organization was created for students interested in music, and is open to music majors and minors of sophomore standing or above.

Sigma Mu Epsilon activities for this year have been the initiation breakfast, ushering at concerts, taking roll at recitals, carolling at Christmas, assisting at the high school solo and ensemble contests, and the music scholarship auditions.

The officers for this year were Gordon Leavitt, president; Richard Frick, vice-president; Leona Panerio, secretary; Don Fankhauser, treasurer; Pauline Lieb, historian; and Mr. Herbert Bird and Mr. Russell Ross, faculty advisors.

BUSINESS CLUB

Recognizing the fact that all business, economics and secretarial science majors are now or will be interested in vocational opportunities in their chosen field, it is the purpose of the Business Club to cultivate interest, secure job information and through the experience of others to acquaint members with requirements, compensations, and problems of the various fields.

Business Club, organized this year, elected the following officers: President, Gene McCaw; Vice-president, Clem Davidson; Secretary-treasurer, Laeta Youngblood; and Publicity chairman, Janet Savage.

During the year, Business Club had speakers from a food brokerage firm, and one from a scaffolding company who acquainted the members with those particular fields. Late spring quarter a dinner was held at the VFW Hall for all the clubs in the Social Science division.

SPRING

Spring was ushered in by the traditional March Ellensburg winds. Students wondered if the winds would ever stop. Despite the ever present wind, spring quarter was packed with varied activities culminated by Sweezy Day. Time went by swiftly and all too soon, friends were saying goodbye as Central closed its doors, students scattered to the four winds looking forward already to the new fall quarter and classes ended.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Joyce Wicks, Jerry Smith, Rick Urdahl, Millie Ackerlund, Louise Lievero, Lill Luther.

Senior Class

The Senior class found itself busy with preparations for graduation, such as selection and ordering of announcements and cards, planning for baccalaureate and the multitude of other details. However, time was set aside to sponsor a dance. This was called the Bankrupt Dance and the gym was economically decorated with newspapers, carrying out the theme very well.

Spring quarter plans were also being made to purchase something which the Senior Class could dedicate to the College in memory of the class of '54.

Officers for the year were Rick Urdahl, President; Gerald Smith, Vice-president; Mildred Ackerlund, Secretary-Treasurer; Joyce Wicks, Donna Alexander and Lillian Luther, social chairmen. Assisting as class adviser was Mr. Oppleman.

Senior class members' activity information is listed in the index, starting on page 125.

BASEBALL

On April 6 the Wildcats traveled to Seattle U., where they absorbed a twin setback, losing the first game 7-4 and the second game 8-7 after a three-run seventh inning rally which left the crimson and black boys just short of victory.

On April 12 Central invaded Seattle Pacific—the home of the Falcons—and emerged victorious in both games. Tex Mains and Gary Driessen combined their talents in the first game for a 7-3 victory and Bob (no-no) Logue pitched a beautiful no-hit, no-run game in the finale as he whiffed 13 batters.

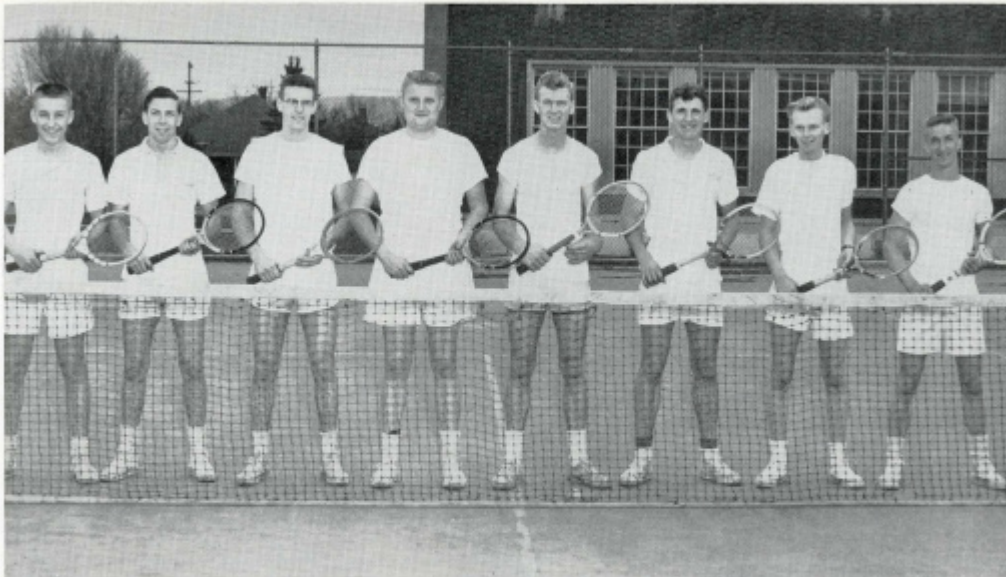

With eight returning lettermen, Dorich, Mains, Beste, Hardenbrook, Watkins, Jones, Carlson and Heacox, plus the addition of some excellent help from Dehil, Nicholi, Springer, Wooley, Burdellis, McAllister, Harriman, Brayton, Driessen, Ripp and Lindbo, Central was out there batting them in.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

- April 16 Seattle Pacific vs. Central at Ellensburg
- 24 Seattle University vs. Central at Ellensburg
- May 1 Eastern vs. Central at Ellensburg
- 4 Gonzaga vs. Central at Ellensburg
- 7 Whitworth vs. Central at Spokane
- 8 Gonzaga vs. Central at Spokane
- 15 Whitworth vs. Central at Ellensburg
- 20 Central vs. Eastern at Cheney

TENNIS

Under the able leadership of Coach Leo Nicholson, the Central Washington College tennis team was all set to defend its Evergreen Conference championship.

First off, the Wildcats defeated Yakima Junior College twice, both times by the score of 6 to 1. They scheduled matches on a home basis with Gonzaga U., Seattle U., Whitworth, Seattle Pacific and Eastern Washington. The Evergreen Conference meet will be held May 21-22 at Pacific Lutheran College in Tacoma.

Coach Nicholson has three returning lettermen in Bud Breard, Marsh Keating and Aris Frederick. Keating teamed with John Snoland to win the state NAIA doubles finals to go to the National NAIA finals at Abilene, Texas, last year. Also showing well were Gene Huber, Roger Jacobsen, Bill Pearson, Boyd Ward, and Bob Allen, a transfer from the College of Puget Sound where he was a letterman in tennis.

With the hustle that the players have shown up to date they will be very hard to unset as defending champions.

TRACK

The squad from Tomlinson field scored over a hundred points in the first meet of the year. Under the coaching of Monte Reynolds the crimson and black of Central are well represented.

Ray Adams equalled the Evergreen Conference record of 9.9 in the hundred during the first meet of the year. Running with Adams in the sprints are Don Pierce, Torgeson and Corkrum.

The weights are headed by big Bill Jurgens. Behind him are dependable point getters Henry Carlos and Van Morgan. Bill Jenne and Ralph Richardson are Central polevaulters.

The low and high hurdles were run by Ken Edwards, Van Morgan and Paul Guay.

The quarter mile was run by Mike Higgins, Ted Nortman, George Seiler, Jim Stackpole and Larry Bowen.

The broad jumpers are Borum, Pierce and Morgan. Seiler and Edwards participated in the high jump.

In the distance mile and two-mile Walt Wilson, Jerry Ward and Dick Schutte ran.

One can be sure that none ever attended a meet this year without knowing that he witnessed some very fine and competitive spirit.

Campus Service Clubs

"This way my hands are free to do other things."

I.K.

First Row: Don Stewart, Al Stevens, Allen Clark, Rodney Dry.

The Claw Chapter of the Inter-Collegiate Knights, commonly called the I.K.'s, has its motto, "Service, Sacrifice, and Loyalty." The club renders many services to the college such as patrolling athletic functions, acting as campus guides, and operating the book exchange. They also sponsor the first big dance of the year, the I.K. Formal.

Highlight of the year came during spring quarter when the CWCE chapter entertained nearly 200 delegates from 30 different chapters in 11 western states at the I.K. National Convention. Al Stevens was general chairman.

SPURS

Spurs, a national honorary for sophomore women, was organized on the campus of CWCE in 1949. Members of Spurs are chosen from girls in the freshman class for their scholarship, patriotism, understanding, responsibility, and service to the school.

This year the Spurs took part in many activities such as Homecoming, in which they registered alumni, sold Homecoming buttons, and decorated for the dance and banquet; registration, in which they helped give tests, and served as guides, and helped with the Blood Drive. The Spurs also sell sandwiches in the women's dorms each Sunday night. They joined with the IK's to give a Christmas party for the people of the old folks' home.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

The Eta XI Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, a national service fraternity, was established at CWCE in 1949. Membership in the fraternity is based on scholastic ability, leadership possibilities, character, and former participation in the Boy Scouts.

Some of the projects of the fraternity this year have been the "Keep Off the Grass" campaigns, the support of campus parking problems, the establishment of new sidewalks, and the support of Explorer bivouacs held in the Ellensburg area.

The annual "Handsome Harry" dance climaxes the fraternity's many social functions. This year Tom Newell and Carolyn Gowan received the honor of being named "Handsome Harry" and "Gorgeous Gussy."

The Central Washington Outdoor Club was organized on campus one year ago for those people interested in outdoor activities such as skiing, hiking, climbing, and fishing.

Fall quarter the club sponsored trips every weekend to various Cascade Mountain areas. Each meeting night there were slides or movies to be enjoyed by the members.

Wintertime was consumed by skiing and the handling of concessions at Swauk ski area.

The officers for the year were Dave Johnson, president; Yvonne Prater, vice-president; Marlene Johnson, secretary; and Judy Grage, treasurer. Mr. Bakke was the club's advisor.

RECREATION CLUB

Row 1: Warren Tappin—Advisor, Tom Wright, Edward Blank, La Verne Roberts, Bill Wilson, Nancy Rickert, Gene Matten.

The Recreation Club was organized in 1949 to give recreation majors and minors an opportunity to exchange ideas and gain experience in their field.

The club sponsored several Co-Rec nights with WRA as co-sponsors. Students enjoyed volleyball, ping pong, basketball, tumbling, checkers, shuffle board, trampoline, and other activities at these informal fun nights. The club had a bowling party and during spring quarter it organized an all-campus bowling tournament. The present club prepared a list of community projects which Rec Clubs may work on, such as a park improvement, a city archery range, and a "Y" project.

Officers for this year were Tom Wright, President; Ed Blank, Vice-president; LaVerne Roberts, Secretary; Bill Wilson, Treasurer; and Warren Tappin, adviser.

PEP CLUB

The main purpose of the CWCE Pep Club is to encourage and instill pep and enthusiasm at all college functions and to perform services for the college when called upon.

The Pep Club has carried on quite a few activities during the past year. They have sold pom poms, sponsored two dances, held pastry sales and have sat in a body at most of the athletic functions.

The club is open to all freshmen and sophomore girls. The Pep Club uniform consists of a red sweater, with the emblem "W" on the front, and a black skirt. These uniforms are traditionally worn each Tuesday.

The officers of the club this year are Nancy Rickert, president; Shirley Ostrom, vice-president; Darlene Brown, secretary; Lila Malet, treasurer; and Peggy Conway, social commissioner.

DO-SI-DO

The call of a hearty "promenade" and the whirl of a full, calico skirt meant that the members of Do-Si-Do were "dancing it up" at their regular Wednesday night meeting. This club was organized with the thought in mind of providing fun and entertainment for all those interested in square dancing and folk dancing.

DANCE CLUB

First Row: Mrs. Cheaka—Advisor, Barbara Plemons, Evelyn Revelli, Joyce Wicks. Second Row: Dana Glenn, Dell Hartman, Jean Dixon, GERALYN KUGLER, June Vincent.

Fall quarter, under President Mary Roberts, the Dance Club entered the Homecoming parade as mice pulling Cinderella in a big pumpkin with the coachman carrying the slipper.

Dell Hartman, with the assistance of other club members, made hand-painted Christmas cards which sold very well.

With the resignation of Mary Roberts, Evelyn Revelli became president and June Vincent remained as secretary-treasurer.

Recommendations for membership in Dance Club are made on the basis of performance in Dance I and/or II. Tryouts were held this year to help old members in their choice. The club had a very active part in the Mother's Day program.

SIGMA TAU ALPHA

Sigma Tau Alpha, college Rainbow Girls' honorary, was organized several years ago. This year interest was rekindled as the membership opened to all Rainbow Girls on Central's campus.

As a service organization, Sigma Tau Alpha has assisted with the SGA convention, the bingo party, the SGA voting, the sale of Who's Who and the supplying of guides for Senior Day. During Mothers' Day Weekend they took charge of the fashion show and the Saturday night dance. In spring quarter, the group sponsored a Wednesday night mixer. April 4, the girls joined the local Rainbow group to attend church services.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

A provision was made for the girls not belonging to WRA to participate in women's sports. These activities were governed by the WRA Council composed of the officers and advisers of WRA. Opportunities were available for the women to play basketball, volleyball, badminton, tennis, and archery. They also learned to use and enjoy the trampoline.

For these sessions of fun and relaxation, the gym was made available every Saturday morning. The women felt free to use the facilities in the gym and thus enjoyed a great deal of time participating in the various sports.

MIA BASKETBALL TEAM

MIA FOOTBALL TEAM

R.O.T.C

Military music was provided by the snappy ROTC band. . . .

Fourth period on Tuesday and Thursday's found the campus crowded with the blue uniformed cadets. . . .

SPRING ACTIVITIES

One of Central's popular bands for this year's dances was that of Johnny Blucher. . . .

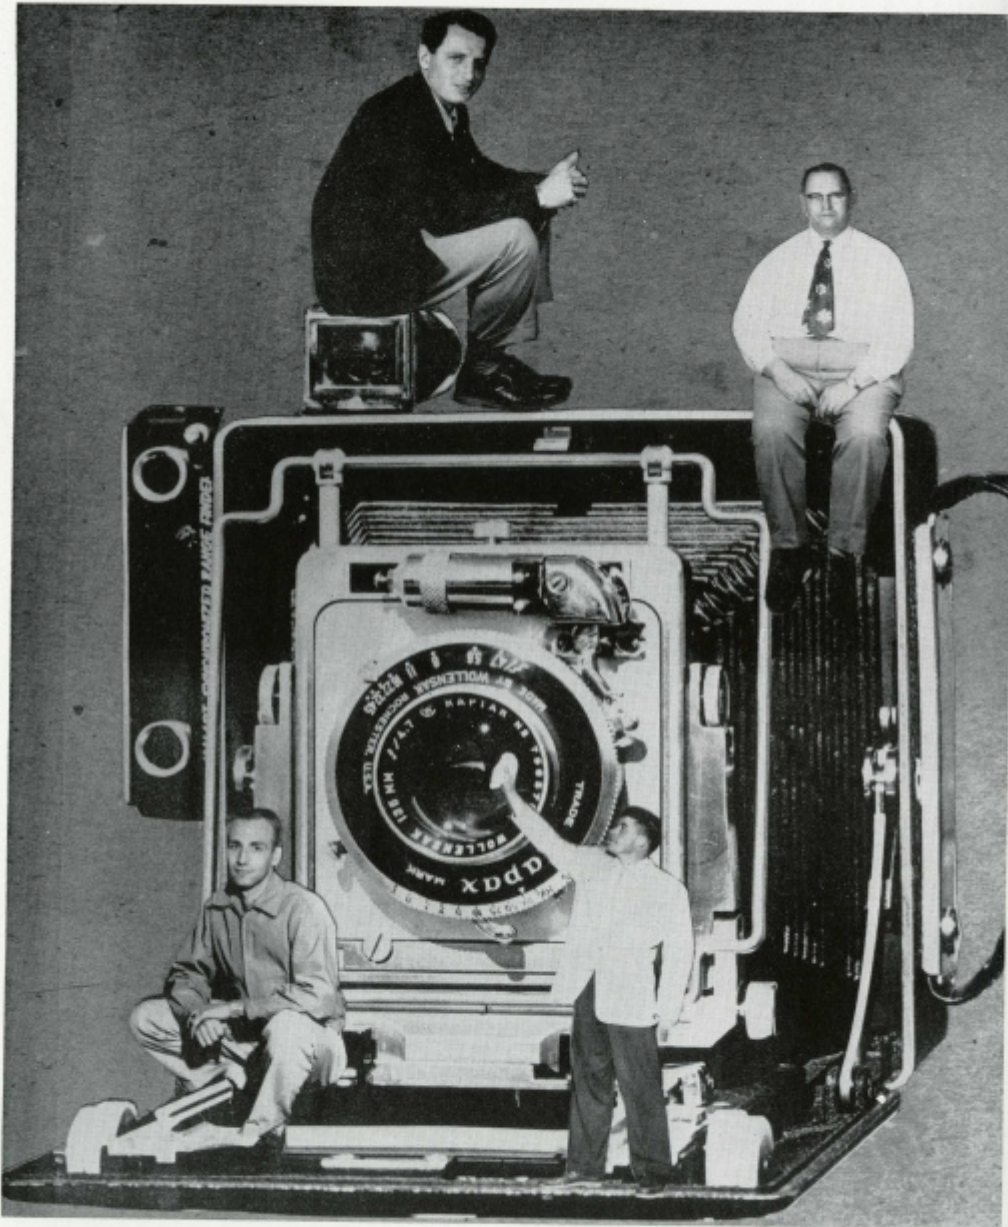

Eagerly looked forward to each spring is Sweezy Day, a day of rest, fun, and no classes. . . .

Acknowledgement

Behind the scenes on this Hyakem were many people who, without recognition, made it possible for this book to be more complete in its coverage of this academic year. The Ellensburg Chamber of Commerce gave us pictures and material for the Ellensburg Rodeo theme. Mr. Howard Vierling, of Artcraft Engraving and Electrotype Company gave us special attention as representative of our engravers. Mr. Goehner again photographed all class pictures and group shots. Frank Oechsner and all the others at the Ellensburg Record who gave us no end of assistance.

Thanks go to each and every one of our advertisers. You are responsible for a great deal of this book and we appreciate it. Sweetians, let's show our appreciation by patronizing them.

Certainly we can't forget Central's SGA for buying us a very fine enlarger and developer, which was put to hardy use this year and will be used by many photographers in the future. Darwin Davis carried the theme very nicely through his caricatures. Neither can it be said that this book could ever have come out without all the help from Miss Wiley, the Hyakem's adviser and also her office staff.

When the Pacific Northwest Indian chief wished to preserve a record, family or tribal, he went to a skilled craftsman and had him build a totem pole. This magnificently engraved pole symbolically told the history, folk lore, or literature of the tribe. The chief was justly proud to have it stand in front of his lodge. Today, yearbook editors choose quality photo-engravings to record the events of the school year. To get the best possible results, they likewise turn to skilled craftsmen to help them build the yearbook. ARTCRAFT, with its "know-how," has been helping editors build better yearbooks for nearly half a century.
